

JOIN THE BRUCE PENINSULA ENVIRONMENT GROUP TODAY!

Since 1989, BPEG, a non-profit public interest group, has been committed to:

- Preserving the unique ecology of the Bruce Peninsula.
- Promoting greater awareness of the region's diverse flora, fauna, geology and cultural history.
- Monitoring human impact on the Peninsula – a designated UNESCO World Biosphere Reserve.

We subscribe to the concepts of sustainable development and community based solutions – striking a healthy balance between environmental protection and economic activity.

Four types of Membership are available:

Individual Membership: A personal Membership for only $1.25 per month.

Family Membership: Ideal for a couple and two children up to 12 years old.

Youth Membership: A FREE individual Membership for young people between the ages of 13 and 17.

Group Membership: For organizations and associations who support the work of BPEG.

Money raised from the sale of Memberships is used to cover the costs of:

- Monthly meetings which are open to Members and the general public.
- Publishing informative newsletters and pamphlets.
- Building and maintaining our Website, Resource Centre and Archives.
